soreness, & pain, promptly relieved by the use of Dr.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Saxe's Cataract Remedy, for a case of Cataract in the eye which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARACT. Paul, heavy beclouding vision of both eyes, sometimes failing from the want of circulation, sometimes profuse, watery, and tearing, sometimes dried, tenacious, mucous, purulent, blue, white putrid; the eyes are weak as water, eyes turn a ring around the pupil, eyes are closed in an offensive matter, together with severe pain in the eye; the vision is changed and has a "mossy twist"; the breath is offensive and the taste is also affected; the eyes are often red, and swelling, with increased pressure, a marked external swelling. Only a few cases have been cured, and symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases have without exception failed to respond to any treatment. The disease is a common one in old age, and dangerous, unless understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing and healing properties, Dr. Saxe's Cataract Remedy cures the worst cases of Cataract. "Cats in the Head." Correspondence and Remittances to three months, will be well recompensed every where; 50 cents.

Told Again from Cataract.

Prof. W. H. Atkinson, the famous magnet of Lima, N.Y., writes: "I was a patient from childhood, from the age of six, and my family physician gave me up as a hopeless case. I must die. He was such a burden, that every day, however small, was a trial. I could not sleep at night, and during the day, I could not work. By the age of 18, I was a mere skeleton. In three months, I was well and the cure has been permanent."

CORRECTLY Hawking and Spitting.

Thomas J. Bransford, No. 202 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a patient from childhood, from the age of six, and hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for a long time could not sleep. My physician gave me up as a hopeless case. I must die. I thought nothing could be done for me. Late, I was advised to try Dr. Saxe's Cataract Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for cataract. I have returned, and I am anxious to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

A complete Treatise on Cataract, giving valuable hints to clothing, diet and other matters of importance, will be mailed, postpaid, on address, on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp.
